

At age 19, American theologian Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758) wrote down 70 resolutions, or commitments, and then read them every week until his death. Some of those resolutions:

- To live with all my might while I do live.
- To study the Scriptures ... steadily, constantly, frequently.
- Never to lose one moment of time.
- Never to do anything which I should despise or think meanly of in another.
- Never to do anything out of revenge.
- To let there be ... benevolence in all that I speak.
