

2015

Jesus, as a mother you gather your people to you; you are gentle with us as a mother with her children. Often you weep over our sins and our pride; tenderly you draw us from hatred and judgment. You comfort us in sorrow and bind up our wounds; in sickness you nurse us, and with pure milk you feed us. Jesus, by your dying we are born to new life; by your anguish and labor we come forth in joy. In your mercy heal us; in your love and tenderness remake us. In your compassion, bring grace and forgiveness.

—Anselm of Canterbury (1033-1109)
